

Cape Cod, Boston Pops,
Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket Tour

August 1-5, 2010

Day 1 – Boston Pops Concert, directed by Keith Lockhart, in Hyannis late afternoon.

Day 2 – Depart for a ferry to Martha's Vineyard. A short 1 hour sea voyage brings us to this scenic paradise. Enjoy the painted gingerbread cottages and Tabernacle of Oak Bluffs. Then we continue our tour of Edgartown with many quaint shops and learn of its whaling history. We will travel along the beach where JAWS was filmed. Boats, lighthouses and more are ours to enjoy. We do not return to the hotel before dinner. (B, D)

Day 3 – We are off for a cruise to the Little Gray Lady of the Sea, Nantucket Island. We will be able to view the Kennedy Compound from our shipboard viewpoint. We board our sightseeing bus for a tour of the island and then return to Nantucket for browsing and shopping. See the Cobblestone streets and quaint sites of this town. We do not return to the hotel before dinner. (B, D)

Day 4 – We depart for our tour of Old Cape Cod to see Nauset Lighthouse, the Marconi Radio Station Site, and the high cliffs overlooking the Atlantic Ocean Seashore Park Visitors Center. Then on to the tip of Cape Cod – Provincetown, browse about town and visit the docks where giant tuna are sold fresh from the deck of the ships. Then we are in for a treat, we board a ship for a thrilling whale watch cruise. The naturalist on board will explain the behavior and migration patterns as we observe these “gentle giants” just a few feet away. Dinner tonight will be a traditional Lobster Feast. (B,D)

Day 5 – Before you leave Cape Cod, you will visit the Kennedy Memorial and see St. Francis Xavier Church in Hyannis then we are off for a tour of Historic Newport, Rhode Island with a visit to the Breakers Mansion. (B)
