April 18—25, 2010

8 Days/12 Meals

Sun, sea and surf add sumptuous seafood, cities of culture and history...Reflections of centuries past and you have a taste of the Old South that you won’t forget. Visit quaint old harbor cities such as Beaufort, the barrier islands, with their lighthouses, shrimp trawlers and miles of Atlantic beaches, all so tempting...Can’t you feel the sunshine and smell the salt air? Let the enchanting beauty of the South capture you on this fabulous getaway.....

Day 1 Motoring south today to a warmer climate, our group will overnight in Stony Creek, Virginia.

Day 2 After BREAKFAST, we’ll continue south to the magnificent beaches of Myrtle Beach. Upon arrival, our Group will check into their ocean front Studio rooms at the Sea Mist Oceanfront Resort for some free time before going to DINNER at the Original Benjamin’s Calabash followed by Le Grande Cirque at the famous Palace Theater.

Day 3 BREAKFAST before starting our travel to Savannah, Georgia. People are drawn to Savannah because of its natural beauty, rich history, and good old fashioned Southern hospitality. A restored train station, more than 100 years old is a perfect setting for the beginning of our guided tour; we will see the Historic and waterfront Districts, passing downtown squares, monuments and historic buildings. Later checking into the Inn at Ellis Square, then depart for DINNER this evening at the Wilkes House.

Day 4 We will enjoy BREAKFAST this morning at our hotel, before we are off to discover Jekyll Island! Our tour will begin at “the richest, the most exclusive and prestigious Jekyll Island Club.” LUNCH will be enjoyed by all and then we will board a tram for a tour of this 240-acre compound. This afternoon we will tour the largest of Georgia’s fabled Golden Isles, St. Simons Island, stopping at St. Simons Lighthouse and Retreat Village, with numerous restaurants to choose from for dinner (on own).

Day 5 BREAKFAST this morning, before we begin our journey north, stopping off in Beaufort, the Queen of the Carolina Sea Islands. On our tour you’ll see historic homes and learn about Gullah culture. Next, arrive in Charleston for Low country cuisine at the Crab Shack (DINNER included)

Day 6 After BREAKFAST, a tour of Charleston, a vibrant coastal city, offering historical sites from the Revolutionary and Civil wars, plantation home and garden. Tonight we’ll be rejoined with our fellow passengers in Myrtle Beach for a farewell DINNER and after dinner a perfect way to spend our last evening in Myrtle Beach is enjoying a show at The Carolina Opry for some feel good entertainment.

Day 7 BREAKFAST at hotel, and we’ll start our journey north, arriving in Fredericksburg, VA for our final night together.

Day 8 BREAKFAST this morning before we depart. Our “traveling family” arrives back in the Capital District with priceless memories of one of the South’s “best kept secrets!”
